

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
OCTOBER 2001 - p. 1 of 7

FACE THE NATION

10/07/01 EXPANDED EDITION - the war on terrorism

- 1) Update: preparation for U.S. air strikes on Afghanistan (C: David Martin)
  - 2) Update: developments in Pakistan (C: Allen Pizzey)
  - 3) Interview with Secretary of the Treasury Paul O'Neill about: attempts to track down and cut off the financial flow to terrorists; cooperation from allied industrial nations; proposed economic stimulus package; the threat of additional attacks
  - 4) Interview with Sen. Thomas Daschle about: Secretary O'Neill's statements; the necessity to speed up economic stimulus legislation
  - 5) Interviews with Sen. Bob Kerrey and Major Gen. Bob Patterson about: the nature of a U.S. offensive; the kind of opposition to be expected from the Taliban; the need to create stability in Afghanistan.
- Guests Correspondents: David Martin (1); Allen Pizzey (2)
Guests: Paul O'Neill, Secretary of the Treasury (3); Sen. Thomas Daschle (D., South Dakota) (4); Major Gen. Bob Patterson, former Air Force Special Operations (5); Bob Kerrey, former Senator (D., Nebraska)

10/14/01 EXPANDED EDITION - The war on terrorism

- 1) Interview with Attorney General John Ashcroft about the continuing investigation of the September 11 terrorist attacks/people who are under suspicion but are still at large; the recent anthrax outbreak/the FBI's handling of a case at NBC; non-English speaking aliens receiving licenses to drive hazardous materials trucks
  - 2) Interviews with Dr. Mohammad Akhter and Sen. Bill Frist about: U.S. preparedness in the event of a bioterrorist attack: anthrax used as a weapon of mass destruction/smallpox and other plagues
  - 3) Update: anti-American demonstrations in Pakistan/warning issued by Osama bin Laden (C: Allen Pizzey)
  - 4) Interview with Senators Joseph Biden, Bob Graham and Richard Shelby about: the implications of bin Laden's warning; concern over a destabilized Pakistan; anthrax cases in Florida; the capability of U.S. intelligence monitoring; U.S. efforts to help Afghanistan maintain a stable government; efforts to alert the public to the dangers of bioterrorism without causing panic
  - 5) Roundtable discussion about: the Bush Administration's handling of the current crisis; the threat of anthrax; the hunt for Osama bin Laden; the meaning of bin Laden's televised videotaped messages
- Guest Correspondent: Allen Pizzey (3)

Guests: John Ashcroft, Attorney General (1); Dr. Mohammad Akhter, Dir. , American Public Health association (2); Sen. William Frist, M.D. (R. , Tenn.) (2); Sen. Joseph Biden (D., Del.) (4); Sen. Richard Shelby (R. , Ala.) (4); Sen. Bob Graham (D., Fla.) (4); James Schlesinger, former Defense Secretary (5); Judith Miller, The New York Times (5)

P. 2 of 7

FACE THE NATION (continued)

10/21/01 EXPANDED EDITION - the war on terrorism

1) Interview with Secretary of State Colin Powell about: U.S. ground troops in Afghanistan; potential threat from a number of different terrorist groups; source of the anthrax material; anti-terrorism statement by APEC (Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation); Powell's message to Osama bin Laden

2) Update: results of U.S. ground action/finding of documents that could yield information about the whereabouts of Taliban leader Mullah Mohammad Omar or Osama bin Laden (C: David Martin)

3) Interviews with Haron Amin and Mark Bowden about: the type of government that should be put in place in Afghanistan; the impact of the U.S. ground offensive on the Taliban

4) Update: indications that fighting in Afghanistan has spread to Pakistan/report that Mullah Omar's son has been killed (C: Allen Pizzey)

5) Interview with Sen. John Kerry about: the diagnosis of a Washington, D.C. postal worker with inhalation anthrax; the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan/formation of a moderate Afghan government

6) Interviews with Sen. Bill Frist and Dr. Richard Spertzel about the anthrax scare/its impact on the Capitol

7) Interview with Jim Hoagland about: the source of the anthrax material/possible involvement of Saddam Hussein; formation of a coalition government in Afghanistan; the impact of the killing of a Cabinet member in Israel

Guest Correspondents: David Martin (2); Allen Pizzey (4)

Guests: Colin Powell, Secretary of State (1); Haron Amin, Washington

pub10-01

Representative for the anti-Taliban Northern Alliance (3); Mark Bowden, expert on special operations (3); Sen. John Kerry (D., Ma.) (5); Sen. Bill Frist, M.D. (R., Tenn.) (6); Dr. Richard Sperzel, former UN Biochemical Weapons Inspector (6); Jim Hoagland, The Washington Post (7)

10/28/01 EXPANDED EDITION - the war on terrorism

- 1) Interview with Deputy Postmaster General John Nolan about: the safety of U.S. mail; health concerns of postal workers
  - 2) Interview with Sen. John McCain about: the necessity of a ground invasion in Afghanistan; the airline security bill
  - 3) Interview with Sen. Christopher Dodd about: his reaction to Sen. McCain's comments; the need for a transnational response; lack of defections from the Taliban; the anthrax scare
  - 4) Commentary: President Bush's decision not to attend political fundraisers (C: Bob Schieffer)
  - 5) Update: terrorist attack on a church in the Punja region of Pakistan (C: Randall Pinkston)
  - 6) Interview with Rep. Richard Gephardt about the need for a large ground force in Afghanistan; terrorism at home/the anthrax outbreak; the airline security bill
  - 7) Interview with Dr. Mohammad Akhter and Elisa Harris about the anthrax problem/a possible connection with the September 11 attacks; U.S. handling of the threat
  - 8) Interview with Robert McFarlane and Thomas Friedman about: the use of unconventional means in combating the Taliban; the lack of real allies
- Guest Correspondent: Randall Pinkston (5)
- Guests: John Nolan, Deputy Postmaster General, U.S. Postal Service (1); Sen. John McCain, R., Arizona) (2); Sen. Christopher Dodd (D., Connecticut) (3); Rep. Richard Gephardt (D., Missouri) (6); Elisa Harris, University of Maryland) (7); Dr. Mohammad Akhter, American Public Health Association (7); Robert McFarlane, former National Security Adviser (8); Thomas Friedman, The New York Times (8)

P. 3 of 7

60 MINUTES

10/07/01 EXPANDED EDITION: "America Fights Back"- special two-hour edition interspersing 60 MINUTES segments with CBS News coverage of the bombing of Afghanistan, focusing on the U.S. retaliatory raids against terrorist targets. (Anchors: Dan Rather, Ed Bradley - C: David Martin, John Roberts, Jim Axelrod, Richard Roth, Jim Stewart, Lee Cowan, Maureen Maher, Walter Cronkite, Bob Schieffer - CBS News Consultant

pub10-01

: Fouad Ajamai) Includes: "Blueprint For Survival" - focuses on concern over the possibility of terrorist use of biological or chemical weapons against the U.S. Includes interviews with Dr. Mike Osterholm, an epidemiologist; Professor Matthew Meselson, Harvard University; Colonel David Franz, U.S. Army biological expert; and former Ambassador Richard Butler who share their expertise on the subject. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul Gallagher, Peter Klein) (did not air on WCBS-TV New York & KY W Philadelphia (OTO's; also did not air on six other affiliates) "Survivors" - Sandler O'Neill not only lost a third of its employees on September 11 but its entire World Trade Center headquarters operation. Determined to succeed, it's now back on its feet doing business and helping the families of missing employees. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Trevor Nelson) Andy Rooney Topic: "I Apologize"- Andy apologizes for his criticism, two weeks ago, of President Bush's comments

10/14/01 "Special Ops"- profile of Special Operations, an elite U.S. military unit trained to go behind enemy lines to carry out missions whose newest assignment will be tracking down Osama bin Laden. Four Special Forces veterans -- Sgts. Robert Shippen and Tim Schaaf; Col. Michael Taylor; and Michael Walsh, Navy SEAL -- describe on covert operations in conflicts from Vietnam to the Gulf War. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner, John Marks)

"Nuclear Reactors" - focuses on the safety and security of U.S. nuclear power plants in the wake of September 11 terrorist attacks. Includes interviews with Gov. Donald DiFrancesco of New Jersey; Jim Steets, Indian Point Spokesman; Mr. Paul Leventhal, President, Nuclear Control Institute; Ralph Beedle, Nuclear Energy Institute; and Rep. Ed Markey (D., Ma.) (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn, L. Franklin Devine)

"Condoleeza Rice" - interview with National Security Advisor Condoleezza Rice about the status of the war on terrorism and the possibility of more attacks. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)

Andy Rooney Topic: ads showing that Americans are the 'good guys'

10/21/01 "The Second Most Wanted Man"- report on the Islamic Jihad, or "holy war" and Dr. Ayman al-Zawahiri, a 50-year-old Egyptian said to be the mastermind behind Osama bin Laden. Includes interviews with Professor Mamoun Fandi, National Defense University; former Major General Serag Al-Rouby of the Egyptian police; Mohammed Abdul Moneim, former spokesman for Egypt's President Hosni Mubarek. (C: Ed Bradley - Harry A. Radcliffe II)

"Smallpox" - an interview with Dr. D.A. Henderson, the doctor who led the team responsible for eradicating smallpox a quarter century ago and now the top adviser on bioterrorism to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, about U.S. preparedness in the event that terrorists use the deadly disease as a weapon. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Peter Klein)

"Two Faces Of Pakistan" - report on Pakistan where despite protests an d violence in the streets, most people do not profess anti-American sentiments. Includes interviews with Pakistanis in various professions and with students at Pakistan's most exclusive prep school. (C: Christine Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)

Andy Rooney Topic: mail is less of a pleasure these days

P. 4 of 7

60 MINUTES (continued)

10/28/01 "Saddam's Iraq" - a report on the reactions of the Iraqi people and government to the suggestion that Iraq had a hand in the September 11 terrorist attacks and may be the next target for U.S. attacks. Includes interviews with Tariq Aziz, Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister; Amer Al-Saadi, Hussein's Scientific Adviser; and Richard Butler, former Chief Weapons Inspector. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)

"The Prince" - interview with Saudi Arabian Prince Alwaleed bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud about New York Mayor Rudolph Giuliani's refusal to accept his gift of $10 million for the families of the September 11 terrorist attack victims. Prince Alwaleed says that his critical comments on U.S. policy were just friendly advice and claims that Saudi Arabia has a stable government with no civil unrest. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon, Solly Granatstein)

"End Of Innocence" - followup to "Give Peace A Chance" (OAD: 10/11/98), a report on Seeds of Peace, a summer camp in Maine for Jewish and Arab teenagers. The followup consists of interviews with some of the former campers who talk about how terrorist attacks of the last three years have altered their outlook. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Genes" - scientists should work on a method to get rid of the genes that cause people to behave badly

60 MINUTES II

10/03/01 "The Millennium Plot" - report on how Diana Dean, a U.S. Customs inspector, helped foil a plot to bomb both American and Jordanian sites during the millennium. Includes interviews with Mohammed Hijazi, whose son Raed was involved in the plot; Col. Mahmoud Obeidat, Jordan's chief military prosecutor; Daniel Benjamin, White House adviser; and U.S. Customs Inspector Mark Johnson. (C: Bob Simon - P: Dragana Mihailovich)

"Rescue 1/Rescue 2"- footage from a documentary about New York City Fire Department's Rescue I and Rescue II companies, all of whose members

pub10-01

lost their lives at the World Trade Center. Filmed over the last year by Tom Downey, a documentary filmmaker and son of N.Y. Fire Chief Ray Downey, himself among the missing, the documentary will air on TLC later this year. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran, Janet Klein)

"The Hunt For bin Laden" - a report on Osama bin Laden...where he lives and how he operates. Includes interviews with Sheik Essa, bin Laden's spiritual adviser; Aslam Sharani and Khalid Kwaja, Islamic activists; and CBS News consultant Milt Bearden. Also includes interviews by George Crile with Pakistani schoolgirls. (C: Dan Rather - P: George Crile, Neeraj Khemlani, David Rubin)

Charles Grodin - advice for New York Mets and Giants teams

10/10/01 "Most Wanted" - profile of Lebanese terrorist Imad Mugniyah, said to have set the example for Osama bin Laden's recent atrocities. Includes interviews with: Larry Johnson, former counterintelligence officer for the State Department; David Jacobsen, a hostage in Beirut in the 1980's; and Dewey Claridge, founder of the CIA's Counter-Terrorism Center. (C: Bob Simon - P: Joel Bernstein)

"The Best Defense" - a report on measures the FBI and other agencies are taking to thwart more terrorist attacks on U.S. soil. Includes interviews with James Jarboe, section chief for counterterrorism at the FBI; former Senator Warren Rudman (R., N.H.); Michael Vattis, founder/director of the FBI's computer terrorism center; and Coast Guard Commander Steve Flynn. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens, Margaret Ebrahim)

"Go Get 'Em" - a report on tactics employed by the FBI in the apprehension of terrorists such as Ramzi Yousef and Mir Aimal Kansi. Includes interviews with former FBI Deputy Director Bear Bryant; special agent Brad Garrett; and Jimmy Carter, former Assistant Director of the FBI (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff, Kyra Darnton)

"Unveiled" - five young women...three students, a doctor and a psychologist...refugees from Afghanistan talk about life under the Taliban. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub, Denise Schrier Cetta)

Charles Grodin - dealing with back pain

p. 5 of 7

60 MINUTES II (continued)

10/17/01 "The Anthrax Scare" - a report about the properties and effectiveness of anthrax in the mail and other delivery systems, including an interview with William Patrick, a bioterrorism expert who feels that the anthrax scare may be as dangerous as the disease itself. Also includes interviews with Judy Johnson, president of the local postal workers union in Miami, Fla. And Charles Guy, economist with the Postal Services. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)

"Out Of The Rubble"- William Jimeni, a rookie police officer with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, and his rescuers, former Marine Staff Sgt. Dave Karens and New York City police officer Scott Strauss, tell how Jimeni and fellow officer Sgt. John McLaughlin were tra

pub10-01

pped and rescued from beneath the World Trade Center rubble. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Raylena Church Fields, Rebecca Liss)

"The Children Of September" - interviews with some of the children who lost a parent at either the World Trade Center or the Pentagon about their memories of September 11 and how their lives have changed. (C: Scott Pelley - Janet Klein, Casey Morgan)

Charles Grodin: trying to get back to normal after the terrorist attacks on September 11

10/24/01 "Is It Safe?" - an interview with U.S. Transportation Secretary Norman Mineta about the issue of air travel safety following the September 11 terrorist attacks, his decision to bring down all private and commercial aircraft on that day and the necessity to change legislation that permits airlines to cut costs by making minimum wage workers responsible for security screening. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider, Gregory L. Vistica)

"Behind Enemy Lines" - members of the original Delta Force discuss their failed attempt in 1980 to rescue hostages taken in Iran by radical Islamic students and what improvements have been made in military Special Operations since then. Includes interviews with Logan Fitch, Wade Ishimoto and Ed Seiffert, all of whom took part in the 1980 mission. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)

"Paul McCartney" - interview with former Beatle Paul McCartney about The Concert For New York, a benefit concert set up in the aftermath of the World Trade Center attack. (C: Dan Rather - P: John Hamlin)

Charles Grodin: impact of the September 11 attack on New York City taxi drivers

10/31/01 "Early Warning" - focuses on the recent alleged terrorist spread of anthrax in the U.S. including interviews with: Richard Morgana, a postal worker who developed cutaneous anthrax; William Patrick, a biological weapons expert; Joan Jackson, whose brother, also postal worker, died of inhalant anthrax; and Dr. Alan Zelicoff, Sandia National Laboratories who has designed an early warning system whereby potential outbreaks can be tracked. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Denise Schrier Cetta, Raylena Church Fields, Miriam Weintraub)

"Under Ground Zero"- viewers are taken beneath 'ground zero', until September 11 the site World Trade Center, to an underground city now a 16-acre burial ground where an exhausting and dangerous cleanup job is taking place. Includes an interview with Ken Holden, Commissioner, New York Department of Design and Construction. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

"An Americal Dream"- a profile of Keith and Lisa Brown of Alpine, Utah, all five of whose children are talented classical pianists attending the Juilliard School. Includes an interview with Veda Kaplinsky, Chairwoman of the piano department. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)

Charles Grodin - differing opinions on Halloween

P. 6 of 7

48 HOURS

10/05/01 "Safe at Home?"- reports on the aftermath of the September 11 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon including: "Security Blanket"- focuses on the fear of bioterrorist attacks, including interviews with terrorism expert Amy Smithson; Capt. Bob Royal, Houston, Tx. Police hazardous materials team; Dr. David Pierce, Houston's chief of emergency medical services; and Dr. Hugh McGlaughlin of Akron, Ohio. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Jay Young); "Root Of Evil?" - profile of alleged 20th hijacker Zacarius Moussaoui including an interview with Abd Samad Moussaoui, his older brother and Charles Shoberg, Scotland Yard's anti-terrorism unit. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Josh Yager); "This Is London"- report on the use by the British of CCTV closed circuit television to implement security and the issue of personal privacy. (C: Peter Van Sant - C: Gail Abbott Zimmerman); "Good To Go"- report on specially trained Marine Corps anti-terrorist squads including, an interview with Gen. Buck Bedard, Deputy Commandant of the Marine Corps. (C: Harold Dow - P: Chuck Stevenson); "Family Of Man" - a report on how Steve Moore and Steve Ernst pledged to help the family of a friend, Randy Scott, who was killed at the World Trade Center, and about funds that have been set up to help the families of those who lost their lives in the terrorist attacks. (C: Harold Dow - P: Mary Sue Holland Dehn); "Emotional Rescue" - rescue workers from Oklahoma City talk about the toll their rescue efforts took on their emotional and personal lives. (C: Steve Hartman - P: Marc Goldbaum) (Sr. P: Katie Boyle, Al Briganti, Reid Collins Jr.)

10/12/01 Update: report on a new case of cutaneous anthrax involving an NBC employee, including interviews with: Dr. Martin Blaser, Centers For Disease Control; Amy Smithson, bioterrorism expert; Judith Miller, co-author of Germs; and Barry Mawn, Assistant Director, FBI. (C: Erin Moriarty)

"The Untold Story Of Flight 11"- a report on events aboard American Airlines Flight 11 before the plane rammed into the World Trade Center on September 11, including: portions of taped phone conversations between two flight attendants who reported the hijacking to supervisors on the ground; interviews with: Michael Pangia, aviation expert; members of the Flight 11 crew's families; profiles of some of the passengers who lost their lives including Berry Berenson Perkins, photographer and wife of the late actor Anthony Perkins; David Retick, businessman and family man and Tara Creamer, wife and mother. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky, Cindi Babski, Peter Doyle, Tom Forman, Joe Halderman, Sophia Kim, Randy Martin, Alec Sirken); Profile: responses to an e-mail message sent by Dr. Tony Kern, Lt. Colonel, USAF, retired, to his family about Americans' commitment to a war on terrorism which was subsequently posted on the Internet. (C: Bill Lagattuta)

pub10-01

P. 7 of 7

48 HOURS (continued)

10/19/01            Update: the first ground combat operation of America's war against terrorism has been completed. The target in this operation was the airfield at Kandahar, a major stronghold in southern Afghanistan. (C: David Martin) "The Fight To Survive"- focuses on the unsung heroes of September 11, including reports on: "The Keepers Of The Towers"- the heroism of the men and women of the Port Authority including interviews with: Ken Greene, Assistant Director of Aviation; George Taubeek, the Trade Center's security manager; train master Rich Moran; and Alan Reiss, operations overseer for both towers (C: Peter Van Sant); "Nowhere To Run" - the dangers faced by Port Authority personnel during the evacuation of the World Trade Towers. (C: Peter Van Sant); "Deadly Intent" - the ease with which the wrong people can get anthrax spores, including interviews with Dr. Kenneth Alibek, former director of a secret program in the Soviet Union that produced biological weapons, and Richard Spertzel, former UN weapons inspector (

pub10-01

C: Erin Moriarty); "Hazard Pay" - impact on the security industry of the September 11 terrorist attacks, including interviews with: Dr. Alan Louie, Arthur D. Little Laboratories, who has been working on an anti-anthrax foam; Michael Stapleton, a New York consultant; former Secret Service agent Chuck Vance; and Ralph Baker and John Rivers, both of whom make personal parachutes. (C: Susan Spencer); "A New Lease On Life" - stories of survivors from the World Trade Towers, including Lou Lesce, an employment counselor working on the 86th floor of Tower One who, despite having had quadruple heart bypass surgery, made it down the stairs to safety; and Michael Benfante, a communications firm employee who carried a woman in a wheelchair from the 68th floor of the building. (C: Richard Schlesinger); "Resolute"- the media's role in informing the public about anthrax without causing undue fear, even as it has itself been a target, including an interview with Michael Wolff, New York magazine media columnist. (C: Troy Roberts) (Sr. P: Katie Boyle, Al Briganti, Reid Collins Jr., Peter Schweitzer - P: Patti Aronofsky, Tom Forman, Joe Halderman, Paul LaRosa, Gail Abbott Zimmerman)

10/26/01 "Double Life" - two tales of deception: "Diagnosis Murder" - a report on Gerald Barnes, an actor who for 25 years managed to fool patients and physicians into thinking that he was a doctor despite a number of convictions for medical fraud. Barnes was apprehended in 1995 and sentenced to federal prison. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ira Sutow, Jennifer L. Simpson); "The Great Pretender" - a report on Danny C. who managed to take on the identity of Sha Na Na singer Vinny Taylor. Following the discovery that the real Vinny Taylor had died of a drug overdose in 1974, it was revealed that Danny C. was in fact Edward Solly, an escaped murderer. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Susan Wiggins Moore); "Children Of War" - fifth graders and parents in New Vision School in Madison, N.C. discuss whether it is safe to go on their annual class trip to Washington, D.C. (C: Steve Hartman - P: Sophia M. Kim) (A 48 HOURS/Reader's Digest joint investigation) (Sr. P: Katie Boyle)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

10/14/01 "Are We Playing God, The Ethics Of Stem Cell Research" - an interfaith religious program dealing with the moral and ethical issues surrounding stem cell and embryonic research, including a comprehensive discussion by a panel of distinguished scientists and moralists in Washington, D.C. Audrey Chapman, a minister who trained as a social scientist and religious ethicist for the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), served as moderator. These panelists explore the positions held by various faith traditions on stem cell research and other medical issues. The broadcast also goes behind the scenes to depict the great advances made in genetic and other scientific research, which drive so much debate. (E.P: John P; Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)